EASTERN LEBANON COUNTY
HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

Time passes on and Todays fade away into Tomorrows; and in the Tomorrows you'll find your answer to what you strove for in the past years of your life. In all your hopes, dreams and prayers you always pursued a way to reach your goal. Each of us has a different goal in life, and to reach it depends entirely on our own will to acquire that goal whatever it may be. But how you use every minute of your life will be the points you gain to reach your quest. Our school has given us a great opportunity to prepare ourselves for the future through the courses it provides, sports and activities. The knowledge that you gained in school will be the launching pad that will help you to some day reach that goal of which you have always dreamed. As seniors we have already reached many goals but there are many more to be conquered; for youth is always reaching out to find a new challenge, to reach a new goal, until finally all will succeed in reaching the ultimate goal.

Dedication To Our Parents

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls.
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.
The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.
Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness;
For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

TO THE CLASS OF 1970

We are extremely proud of the Class of 1970. The class is one that has exhibited good school spirit as well as other qualities not the least of which is a concern for proficiency for doing well whatever is undertaken. We trust and pray that these same good qualities that have been so ably exemplified by the class as a group while in high school will be a permanent part of the life of each of the class members in the years that lie ahead. On behalf of the administration and faculty, may we extend to each of the members of the Class of 1970 our best wishes for a bright, successful future.

To my unforgettable friends from Elco:

In every part of the world, there is always someone waiting for the opportunity to come to this beautiful country.

From Chile I was the lucky one to be chosen by the International Fellowship Incorporated to come to this fabulous country. I never dreamed that I would have won such a marvelous award. Now, I think its a dream from which I wouldn't like to awake.

The friendship, love, and warm welcome that everybody has given me makes me feel at home and it will be treasured in my heart for the rest of my life.

When I go back to my country, I will tell everybody of my happy and unforgettable experiences that I had during my stay here and of the warm hospitality that you have shown me.

I had the good fortune too, of having a lovely family for foster parents. They gave me the same love and affection that my own family gives me at home in Chile.

I hope someday you will have the opportunity to come to my country so that we can show you the great affection that my country has for you.

I want to thank everybody for making my stay here a wonderful experience that I shall never forget.

God bless you all.

Your friend;

MARIA LAZO

Yearbook Staff

The Yearbook Staff would like to express its gratitude to all those who have worked toward the completion of this book. During the year we have seen championship teams in tennis, soccer, cheerleading, golf, and baseball; and football has finally made its appearance as a varsity sport at ELCO. We have seen the stage transformed into the apartments of Jan and Brad, the land of Camelot, and Captain von Trapp's villa. The completion of this book signifies the end of a great year. We hope that in the future this book will serve as a reminder of the successes and achievements of the class of '70.

Elco's First

The fall sports season at Elco was ushered in with excitement, pageantry, and fun at the various homecoming activities. A blazing bonfire and rousing pep rally began the festivities. Soccer and football games were held (with both teams emerging victorious) and Donna Schware was crowned Homecoming Queen. She and her court (Cindy Hess, Brenda Krall, Becky Longenecker, and Chere Wise) were also present at the Homecoming Dance. The Senior Band, cheerleaders, and school clubs as well as an enthusiastic school-spirited student body both helped to make this first Homecoming a success and to set a precedent at Elco.

"The hours slip past. Our moments melt into the eternity behind us. Time sweeps us on to a destination from which there is no return."

These are the words of Rasul Rza.

For the class of 1970 the hours have indeed slipped past and time has swept us through twelve years of education here at ELCO. We shall never be able to recapture the memorable experiences our school has provided us, but we realize that in the future we shall build upon these experiences and use them to increase our understanding of today's world.

Now we enter this tumultuous world as young adults. For many the world is one of despair. For us it is a world of hope. We shall try to apply all of the preparation for life that our school has given us. It is now our time. Our time, as it was in the lives of Romeo and Juliet. A time to: "Let our dreams flourish to see life worthwhile.
To endure life's storms
for a new world."

A world in which we greet life's problems and realize that they are not only our problems, but the problems of all humanity.

We shall try to put meaning into our lives by, first of all, being more human in our encounters with other people. From this all else will follow. We shall better appreciate the vastness of our universe, the simple joys of life, the magic of a smile, the touch of a friend. By being ourselves we hope to aid all humanity by bringing about unity and peace throughout the world. This is a goal which can be reached. We shall build upon the foundation you have given us and, while building, constantly set new goals -- perhaps some beyond our reach, but none beyond our hope.

The class of 1970 thanks those of you who have contributed to our education and promise as we leave here to follow the advice of Rasul Rza who said:

"Live and labor so that when you are gone everyone will see that where you once were an emptiness yawns."

The class of 1970 bids you farewell.
